For Sporting Events, Concerts and the Arts, RazorGator Has Your Tickets Covered

RazorGator and insurance provider Mondial Assistance announce ticket insurance for event tickets through RazorGator.com

Los Angeles, Ca. and Richmond, Va., July 17, 2008 – RazorGator, a leading full-service secondary ticket and event experience company in the sports and entertainment markets, and Mondial Assistance, a leading travel and specialty insurance and assistance provider, today announced a partnership that will make Event Ticket Protector insurance available on all ticket purchases made through the RazorGator website – www.razorgator.com.

Event Ticket Protector insurance will be offered on RazorGator.com and provides coverage for event tickets that go unused due to illness, traffic accident, car break-down or even a flight delay.

"We are pleased to offer our ticket holders the opportunity to purchase event ticket insurance to cover the "what-if's" in life," states Seth Brody, executive vice president of e-commerce for RazorGator. "Unexpected events that strike at the last minute can cause people to miss their event and, even worse, lose-out on their investment of purchasing the tickets. Event ticket insurance is a great way to help these customers."

Event Ticket Protector insurance, which costs 6% of the total ticket and shipping fees, covers the ticket cost, taxes and shipping up to $10,000 per ticket.

"Now consumers who purchase their tickets through RazorGator have the added peace of mind of knowing they are protected," said Mark Cipolletti, vice president marketing and communications for Mondial Assistance. "RazorGator's customers won't have to face the financial burden of missing their event in addition to the disappointment."
